Benefits of a Tribally-Owned 8(a) Business

- No Cap on Sole-Source Contracts: Utilize set-asides and sole-source contracts without dollar ceilings as per 13 CFR § 124.311(b), providing flexibility in contract size.
- Streamlined Award Process: Awards up to $100M for DoD and $25M for non-DoD do not require Justification and Approval (J&A), per FAR 6.303-1, simplifying the award process.
- Protected Contract Awards: Awards to tribally-owned firms are not subject to protest, as stated in 13 CFR § 124.517(a), ensuring stability and predictability in contract awards.
- Flexibility in Sole-Source Acceptance: As per 13 CFR § 124.506(b), there's no prerequisite for a procurement competition before acceptance of a sole-source contract with a tribally-owned firm.
- Unrestricted Award Opportunities: Agencies can award sole-source contracts to tribally-owned firms at any time, as detailed in 13 CFR § 124.506(a), even when multiple 8(a) offers are expected.
- Past Performance: Proven track record in delivering sophisticated solutions to federal and private-sector clients, showcasing our ability to manage complex projects effectively.
- Expert Team: Our team of subject matter experts has experience with all facets of government contracting and 8(a) participation, with backgrounds in accounting, human resources, marketing, business development, legal entity management, 8(a) applications, and SBA compliance.
- Integrated Solutions: Our diverse service offerings enable comprehensive solutions to meet all client needs.
